MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

December 31, 2020

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The investment objective of the Stone Global Sustainability Fund (formerly EuroPlus Fund) (the “Fund”) is to provide a total return by investing in a portfolio of global stocks which meet ethical and sustainability criteria.

INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

The Manager believes that long-term growth can be achieved by companies that conduct their business and apply capital in a responsible way, giving full consideration to a range of social and environmental issues, the same issues that might affect individuals and the wider society.

Sustainable investment involves:

- Durable franchises: investing in the best businesses, and this means employing a company-focused investment process, established upon a robust risk framework, identifying businesses with durable franchises.
- Solutions and impact:
  - First, key exclusion criteria are applied. Companies held within the portfolio shall not be in breach of any of these, ensuring compliance with ethical norms and excluding those organizations whose activities or operating practices hinder sustainable development.
  - Second, the company must also fulfil at least one of the positive requirements. The Fund will invest in companies that support the achievements of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
- Corporate culture: the Fund will invest only in those companies with strong corporate governance practices, ensuring they are managed in the long-term interest of shareholders and other stakeholders.

The ESG investment criteria are applied by the ethical research team who maintain a proprietary database of company profiles. Companies are assessed against a number of positive and negative top-level social and environmental criteria, comprising over 100 distinct sub criteria. These criteria have been mapped from Sustainable Development Goals launched by the UN.

Companies are assessed using two approaches:

- Stock-specific: looking in detail at the specific merits of their individual activities and how they address corporate responsibility issues;
- Macro: evaluating this performance in comparison to peers in terms of the range of corporate responsibility issues covered and quality of response.

RISK

The overall long-term risk of the Fund is as described in the most recent simplified prospectus. However, no specific changes occurred that have increased or decreased the Fund’s exposure to risk.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Market Overview and Impact on the Fund

In the first quarter of 2020, the subadvisor’s mandate was changed to incorporate sustainability analysis, with a Global, rather than European, focus. Sustainable investing means different things to different people. For us, sustainable investing is about long-term value creation for investors, society and the environment.

We invest in companies that operate sustainably and are committed to helping achieve the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. We avoid companies that fail our rigorous sustainability criteria. We believe that companies displaying strong environmental, social and governance policies and practices are likely to be well positioned to deliver long-term value for investors. As shareholders we work with companies to encourage best practice and highlight any concerns we have.

When choosing investments, we still use our own trinity of risk framework: price, business and financial. We look for businesses that offer good value and make strong and consistent profits with high-quality earnings – those that are backed by real cash rather than accounting contrivance. Companies shouldn’t have more debt than they can handle.

COVID-19 impact

During the period, the Fund did not face any large redemptions that would have materially affected the performance of the Fund (see change in Net Asset Value for net sales).

To preserve our investors’ capital, in the first half of the year, the Sub advisor maintained a prudent cash level. The monies were deployed throughout the year as we became more comfortable with the reopening of the economy and recovery in corporate profits. Within our mandate, companies that were either highly leveraged or at risk of cutting their dividends were sold.

The portfolio has been structured as more defensive compared to its benchmark index. We believe the best way to invest in markets as these is to have a total return focus. Investors should be rewarded by buying companies with a strong growth profile and robust cashflow generation. Under an economic contraction scenario, companies that can sustain their long-term competitive advantage are attractive investments. All the public equity holdings are liquid positions and can be sold within a day.

We remain invested and are committed to companies that provide revenue growth, improving free cash flow and higher earnings per share. We have a disciplined investment process including the implementation of various risk management tools to benefit our investors.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE (continued)

Performance

The Morningstar® Global Markets Index (in Canadian Dollar terms) rose 14.6% in 2020.

The addition of environmental, social and governance (ESG) values to the subadvisor's investment process greatly helped performance during the year, which was one of the most volatile on record.

Names in the Real Estate space performed well during the period. Particularly, Hannon Armstrong Sustainable Infrastructure Capital Inc., a US listed renewables investment platform, more than doubled in value from March 2020 lows.

Several names in the renewable energy space performed extremely well, such as Vestas Wind Systems, a Danish wind turbine manufacturer, saw very strong gains as it pointed to growing revenues and global opportunities in the next five years.

The Technology sector was also a strong performer for the Fund in 2020. Technology plays a key role across many sustainability trends and we continue to see significant investment opportunities. ASML Holding NV, the Dutch semi-conductor equipment manufacturer, increased more than 50% and will be a beneficiary of more electric vehicles in the global transport fleet.

Cadence Design Systems Inc., a US listed technology business, also added strong investment performance and it remains a mission critical part of the move to next generation semi-conductor innovation.

Many Industrial holdings are focused on driving positive change. Littelfuse Inc., a US listed industrial company, is a global leader in power control products that are used across multiple sectors. It also added robust investment performance during 2020.

In the Consumer Cyclical space, Aptiv PLC, the UK listed auto supply business, saw strong performance during the year. Aptiv provides the 'electronics nerve centre' in many vehicles and is well placed to benefit from the trend to more complex and autonomous cars on the road.

Several holdings performed more poorly, but we believe they remain well positioned for long-term growth. Ecolab Inc., the US listed cleaning solutions company, was hampered by global economic lockdown but will be a beneficiary of the gradual re-opening we anticipate in 2021. In the Financials space, First Republic Bank and Legal & General Group PLC remained volatile during the year but both continue to offer interesting long-term opportunities.

The most powerful sustainability trends are still in the relatively early stages. We expect electric vehicle penetration to significantly rise from about 5% in the next few years. Equally, global renewable energy share is still less than a third of overall energy production. In many ways, 2020 acted as a catalyst for an accelerated switch to more sustainable technologies and we are well positioned to benefit from that in the Fund.

The pandemic has shown the inherent frailty of poorly run and unsustainable businesses. Yet, COVID-19 isn't the only obstacle they face. You can already see how treatment of workers, suppliers and the environment can have powerful effects on brands that flow right through to sales and the bottom line.

In our connected age, people are more aware of the impact they can have, so values and moral codes are increasingly affecting the way people spend and invest their money.

The spread of the pandemic across the world was matched by truly enormous support packages from central banks and governments. In particular, the US, Europe and UK rolled out trillions of dollars of furlough schemes, bargain loans, grants, bolstered unemployment benefits and the obligatory quantitative easing (QE).

This welcome response to the global health emergency was a much timelier reaction than during the credit crunch a decade ago.

The hare-like speed of the virus' spread and the unprecedented economic lockdowns and policy support sent markets on a crazy run into the second half of the year. Moreover, A cascade of important developments around the pandemic, US politics and Brexit made the final three months of 2020 very busy indeed.

As we write, much of the world is still locked up at home. When we first got word of this virus, few of us would have imagined that we would still be struggling to deal with its fallout a full year on. It's a tough time for us all. We're shut off from our families, from our colleagues and from the lives we used to know.

As a result, the Fund's Series generated the following returns for the period.

Series
A	B	F	L	O	T8A
22.2%	21.5%	23.4%	21.5%	0.0%	21.9%

Any differences in performance returns between Series are primarily due to different management and operating fees that are applicable to a particular Series.

Please refer to "Past Performance" for details regarding the performance of the Fund's Series. The calculation of the Fund's Series performance takes into consideration all fees and expenses of the Fund, which are not applicable in the calculation of the benchmark's performance.

Change in Net asset value

Explanatory Notes:

- This information is provided as at each period shown.
- Management expense ratio ("MER") for each series is based on total expenses (excluding distributions, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average NAV during the period. The MER excluding performance fee for the period ending December 31, 2020 was 3.04% - Series A; 3.68% - Series B; 1.99% - Series F; 3.61% - Series L; and 3.17% - Series T8A.
- The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
- The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
